In consideration of your fellow music lovers, please remember seating is not permitted after the performance has begun. It is also respectfully requested that you wait until between selections if you must leave the auditorium.

Also, it is asked that photos not be taken during the performance, as this is distracting to both the students and other members of the audience. Photographs are available from the designated Region I photographer.

Video and/or audio taping is illegal and thus prohibited. This performance is being professionally recorded. If the tape is to be as excellent as possible, we must ask that talking (and other sounds) be confined to the time between selections.

Edward A. Czarnecki
Bloomfield Middle School

Mr. Czarnecki is a graduate of the U.S. Naval School of Music, Northeastern Bible College and Montclair State College with degrees in Music performance and music education with emphasis in violin, voice and conducting.

Mr. Czarnecki has directed and toured extensively with New Horizon Singers, drawn from the youth group of the Brookdale Baptist Church in Bloomfield. When not teaching at the Bloomfield Middle School, Mr. Czarnecki is playing his violin with various orchestras throughout the state. He is currently Minister of Music at the Millington Baptist Church in Basking Ridge.

Linda Lanier-Keosaian
Arts High School

Linda Lanier-Keosaian has been a teacher of choral music at Arts High School in Newark for sixteen years. Her mixed choirs and women's choirs have won consistently high ratings at festivals, and have been featured at State and Division conferences.

A native of Alabama, Ms. Lanier-Keosaian holds a Bachelor of Music from Westminster Choir College, with a major in organ performance; and the Master of Sacred Music from Union Theological Seminary in New York, with a concentration in organ, conducting, and composition. She has studied conducting with Elaine Brown, Abraham Kaplan, Joseph Flummerfelt, and Elmer Iseler.

Ms. Lanier-Keosaian is organist-choir director at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Paramus, where her husband, Gregory Keosaian is the minister. They live in Waldwick, NJ and have two married children, and one grandchild.
